

Classroom Handout for Awesome Bible Stories CD ~ Creation Story

printed from www.sundaysoftware.com/awesome

Your teacher has checked the items below they want you to complete.
Start the Awesome Bible Stories CD and go to the Creation Story.

Play the Creation Story

Intro

Was the universe created by accident? What does Genesis chapter 1 tell us?

Day 1

God created this on Day 1: _____.

The “wind from God” represents _____ in the story.

“Even the _____ is under God’s control.”

Day 2

God created this on Day 2: _____.

Ancient people didn’t realize they were living on this: _____.

Day 3

God created these things on Day 3: _____.

On Day 3 we learn that God is an _____ and a _____.

Day 4

God created these things on Day 4: _____.

After the scene, listen to the 3 clues and Replay the Scene to answer the Clue Questions:

Clue 1: What wasn’t created yet on Day 3 that plants need to grow? _____

Clue 2: What do we know the moon does not give off on its own? _____

Clue 3: We know the sky is not this: _____

Day 5

God created these things on Day 5: _____.

What does the word “swarms” tell you about God’s creative power? _____.

What does the word “sea monsters” tell you about God? _____.

Day 6

God created these things on Day 6: _____.

What does it mean to “have dominion”? _____

What does it mean to be “created in the image of God”? _____

Day 7

God did this on Day 7: _____.

What does the word “Sabbath” mean? _____.

At the end of Day 7, click the Green Story Menu Button

Take the Creation Quiz

Create your own “Creation Power Poem” and play it for the class.

Genesis 1 is a powerful poem of praise about God’s creative power. You can create your own Creation Poem in many ways. You do not need to make complete sentences. Select key words and ideas, and repeat them as Genesis 1 does. Or, you might think of the feelings God had as he created, or your own feelings as you think about God’s world and creative power. Feel free to experiment, then, share your Creation Power Poem with others.

Play the “Days of Creation” Game